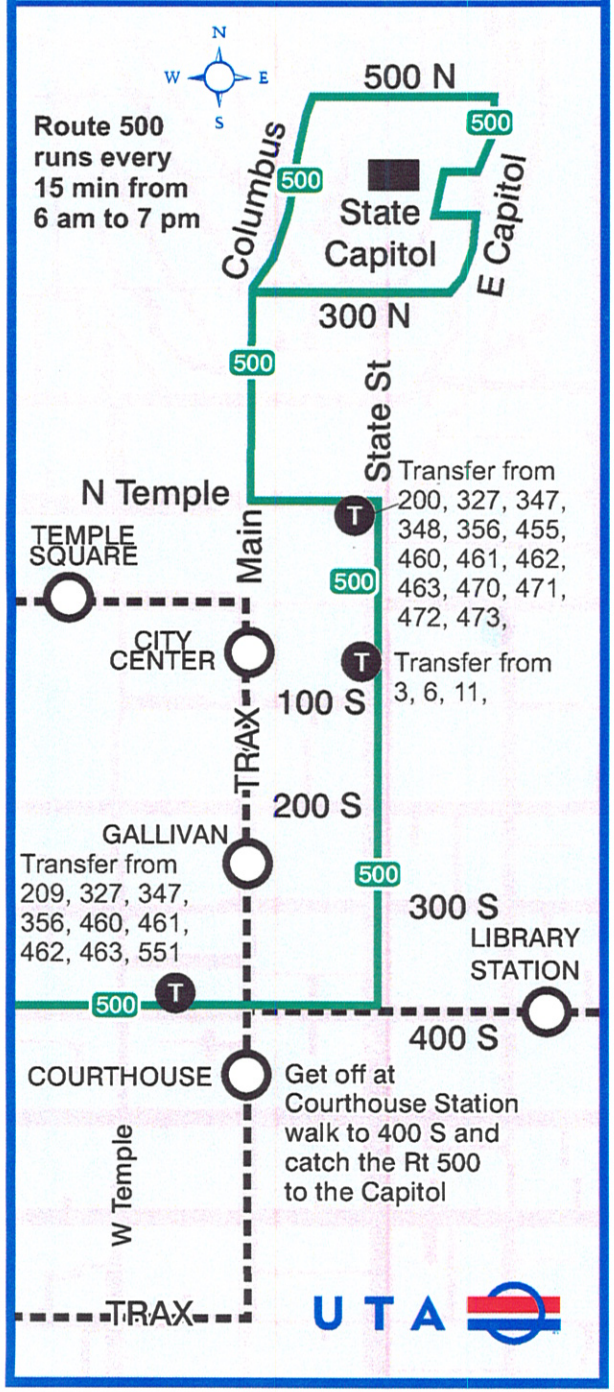
For more info go to www.rideuta.com
or call RIDE-UTA



Taking the Bus to the Capitol

Route 500 – State Capitol Bus
2008 General Session Fact Sheet

Route 500 is the State Capitol circulator bus. Over 500 people use Route 500 each weekday. It runs every 15 minutes from 6:00 a.m. until 7:00 p.m. With that much flexibility, you can arrive when you need to and leave when you want to.

How long does it take?
From Courthouse TRAX station to Capitol: 13 minutes
From 200 South and State Street to Capitol: 8 minutes
From North Temple and Main Street to Capitol: 5 minutes

Can I get to Route 500 from where I live?
Route 500 connects directly with buses coming from: South Salt Lake & Murray (200), West Jordan & Taylorsville (327), Riverton & Herriman (347), North Salt Lake (462), Ogden (470, 472, 473), the Avenues (3, 6, 11), Kearns (348), West Valley (356), Davis County (455), Woods Cross (460), West Bountiful (463), Centerville (471), and Salt Lake City (209, 551).

Route 500 has close connections with buses coming from: North Utah County (803), Orem & Provo (801), Lindon (804), Sandy (320), Utah County (802), South Utah County (805), Pleasant Grove, Cedar Hills & Highland (807).
If your neighborhood isn't listed above, please contact UTA for additional options. Many other cities have connecting service to Route 500 by TRAX or bus.

How do I get to Route 500 from TRAX?
From TRAX Sandy Line – Exit at Courthouse Station. Walk ½ block to bus stop at 65 West 400 South.
From TRAX University Line – Exit at Gallivan Station. Walk 1 block to bus stop at 185 South State Street."

For more info go to www.rideuta.com
or call RIDE-UTA

UTA